The Cardinal

The cardinal, sometimes called the redbird, is known for its brilliant scarlet plumage. It is one of the most beautiful birds in America. The loud clear whistle or rolling carol is sung in summer or even on sunny winter days. It has been named the "Virginia Nightingale" because of the sweetness of its voice.

These characteristics are perhaps the reason the cardinal was chosen as the mascot of the athletic teams of Cuba High School. It is symbolic of the gay spirit and the underlying tenderness of the entire student body.

In this volume, we have attempted to retain some of the highlights of the school year in the spirit of the "Cuba Cardinal"--gay and kind.

Dedication

To that jolly gentleman, who has guided us through our difficult junior and senior years, sponsored the Science Club, assisted with the direction of our play and in numerous ways helped us to become better and happier citizens, we dedicate this 1958 edition of The Cardinal. In so doing we wish to pay tribute to a friend -- MR. ROBERT STEVENOR.

Class Will

We, the departing members of the senior class of Cuba High School, being of sound mind and memory, publish and declare this our last will and testament, in manner and form as follows:

I, Carole Baughman, bequeath my privilege of being cheerleader four years to any girl who will enjoy it as much as I have.

I, Lois Baughman, bequeath my ability to snap photos of people, when they least expect it, to anyone who has an album that'll match mine.

I, Duane Beaird, bequeath my Chevy, "Green Bomb", to Dwight Hart.

I, Larry Beam, bequeath my ability to play football to anyone who needs it.

I, Charles Benham, bequeath my height to Raymond Fidler.

I, Bill Blakely, bequeath my seat in Mr. Nelson's office every noon hour to Jerry Spratt because he will probably need it.

I, JoAnn Buxton, bequeath my laughing sprees to Carol Ault, who doesn't do bad herself.

I, Junior Buxton, bequeath my position as forward on the varsity basketball team to "Goof" Keefauver.

I, Paul Cantrall, bequeath my locker to some fortunate boy in an underclass.

I, Edward Churchill, bequeath my spot in the middle of the line to Dick Mowery.

I, Virginia Churchill, bequeath my all day horseback rides to Beverly Cramblet if she learns to ride.

I, Jim Clark, bequeath my report cards to the library to be used as a goal for future generations.

I, Joan Cramblet, bequeath my ability to stay on my own side of the seat to Kay Sprangler, who seems to forget which side is hers.

I, Jack Crocker, bequeath my wise cracks to someone who can appreciate them.

I, Leonard Fairburn, bequeath my naps in Miss Tapper's classes to anyone who thinks that they can get by with it.

I, Larry Ford, bequeath my girl, Irene, to anyone who thinks that they can get her.

I, Laverne Ford, bequeath my driving skills to Eddie Shields, who, of course, doesn't need them.

I, Lorena Ford, bequeath my blushes to all the bold underclassmen.

I, Joe Graham, bequeath my '50 Ford to Larry Chambers.

I, Victor Gray, bequeath my ability to walk to school to "Dizzy" McLouth.

I, Claude Hallam, bequeath my '37 Dodge to Donald Seward if he thinks he can afford to keep it running.

I, Virginia Hallam, bequeath my quiet ways to Marilyn Edwards.

I, Beverly Hart, bequeath some nice girl to Mr. Stevenor.

I, JoAnn Hendee, bequeath my talent for arguing to "Gig" Bevard, who already knows how.

I, Lee Hendee, bequeath my ability to get along with teachers to my brother, Herbert, who needs it.

I, Doris Henderson, bequeath my height to Mable Orwig.

I, Sandra Johns, bequeath a package of "Life Savers" to Dixie Shields.

I, Dick Kerr, bequeath my driving ability to Pat Conley.

I, John Lafary, bequeath my mechanical skill to Terry Pickel, so he can keep his '49 Plymouth running to Lewistown.

I, Larry Manalo, bequeath my big wave to Gary Wilson.

I, Pauline Martindale, bequeath my shyness to Mr. Wilhoit, who is already shy.

I, Ruth Matheny, bequeath my place as the only girl in physics to some scientific-minded junior girl.

I, Harriett McClaughry, bequeath Retah Surry my pony tail and Ronnie Ehresman my ruler, which he is always using in bookkeeping.

I, Larry McCloskey, bequeath my natural curly hair to anyone who wants it.

I, Josephine McCormick, bequeath my ability to blush at anytime to Colleen Ogden.

This page sponsored by:

CANTON STATE BANK -- Canton

I, Larry McLouth, bequeath nothing until I get something that will will.
I, John Mowery, bequeath my "flattop" to Mr. Herrmann.
I, Milton Murphy, bequeath my sideburns to Larry Harper.
I, Kathryn Orwig, bequeath my regular Sunday night ride in a '56 yellow and black Chevy from Galesburg to absolutely nobody.
I, June Paul, bequeath my power to catch the man I want to Sandra Ford.
I, Nancy Phillips, bequeath my gift of speech to Janice Miller, who really doesn't need it.
I, Paul Pigg, bequéath my ability to skip school and not get caught to Terry Pickel, who will probably need it.
I, Linda Polich, bequeath my nickname to any one who thinks they are sweet enough.
I, Bonnie Rench, bequeath my forthcoming home in West Palm Beach, Florida, to absolutely no one.
I, Mary Jane Roberts, bequeath my smile to anyone who wants it.
I, Gilbert Ruhl, bequeath my high point average per basketball game to Chris Heller.
I, Mary Ryan, bequeath my kid brother, "Pee Wee" Ryan, who beats me up every day, to anybody.
I, Carlos Shaw, bequeath my surplus knowledge to all the underclassmen. There's enough to go around!
I, Philip Spratt, bequeath to Norman Chenoweth my name of "Bunny's Boy".
I, Joyce Steck, bequeath my clarinet swab to those clarinet players who don't "seem" to have one.
I, "Cookie" Strode, bequeath my automobile to Shirley Jones to haul Chris around in.
I, Dallas Taylor, bequeath my middle name to anyone who wants it.
I, Don Thomson, bequeath my nickname "Mouse" to Truman Turall.
I, Marilyn Thompson, bequeath my posture to Daisy Ashwood.
I, Roland Thompson, bequeath all my books to any junior who wants them.
I, Jimmy Walker, bequeath my sense of humor to Billy Thompson.
I, Ann Walsh, bequeath my good times in American History to Sally Petty.
I, Janet Watson, bequeath my position as president of F. H. A. to some unsuspecting junior.
I, Bernard Wheeler, bequeath my job for Burl to Roger Keefauver.
I, Virginia Williamson, bequeath my quiet ways to Colleen Biswell.
I, Carl Windsor, bequeath my position on the basketball floor to Larry Harper, who will fill it nicely.

To the school board, we bequeatn our undying gratitude for the improvements made in our building.

To Mr. Nelson, we bequeath our heartiest congratulations for the successful completion of his first year as principal.

To the underclassmen, we bequeath our hopes that you will keep the standards set by us.

In testimony whereof, we have here unto affixed our hand and seal this first day of May, A.D., ninteen hundred and fifty-eight.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF '58

Class Prophecy

One night, as I was sitting in my living room turning the class ring on my finger, I said aloud, "I wish I knew what the class of '58 will be doing ten years from now."
Out popped my class ring genie and said, "Wish that same wish aloud three times and rub your ring."
It was then I was allowed to look into the future--to 1968 and this is what I saw.

LARRY McLOUTH and LARRY BEAM were enjoying their work as coaches of a girls football team, which was in good shape.

CHARLES BENHAM was doing well in his own "Hot Rod Shop" with the world's best mechanic, JOHN LAFARY.

LAVERNE FORD and HARRISON HENDEE had teamed up on the Cuba police force and had captured public enemy no. 1, Halitosis.

ED CHURCHILL and VIRGINIA BARNES CHURCHILL were still happily married and owners of a large turkey farm.

HARRIETT MUNSON McCLAUGHRY had succeeded in her ambition, which was to learn to milk a cow. The Mc Claughrys owned a large dairy farm.

RUTH MATHENY was with Lawrence Welk's orchestra. She played one of the twin pianos.

BILL BLAKELY was chief cashier and bookkeeper at the Cuba State Bank.

JACK CROCKER seemed to have done well managing his millions with the help of his wife, KATHRYN ORWIG and his private secretary, JANET WATSON.

CARLOS SHAW had finally picked his Daisy and was raising little daisies.

GILBERT RUHL was living in a little grass shack in the Hawaiian Islands. He certainly looked native in his grass skirt.

LINDA POLICH who had been a guest star on Nat "King" Cole's show, had made a most successful appearance on LARRY McCLOSKEY'S amateur show.

BONNIE RENCH, who was an expert hair stylist, was married and touring the world on her honeymoon.

PAUL PIGG and DALLAS TAYLOR had teamed up to make their own satellite, which was to go to the moon and back. Did they succeed? Well, I couldn't say. They sent PAUL CANTRALL up three years ago and he has never been seen since.

Several of the kids left for Hollywood after graduation. They had all succeeded, you might say. MARILYN THOMPSON had become the new champagne lady for Lawrence Welk. MARY JANE ROBERTS had become Pat Boone's private secretary and VIRGINIA HALLAM was managing Ricky Nelson's shows. JIMMY WALKER had taken over the crown that Elvis once wore. Well, with his voice and the great management of LARRY GRAHAM and DONALD THOMSON, who couldn't?

ROLAND THOMPSON was the M. C. on a new television panel show. The panel consisted of JO ANN and JUNIOR BUXTON, LARRY and LORENA FORD. The name of the show was "You Name It" and I guess several people had.

JOYCE STECK, who wanted to be the first woman to play in the U. S. Marine Band, was a captain in a woman's division of the marine corps. She was on her way!

MARY JOHNSON RYAN was playing a triple role. She was wife, mother and a special agent for the F. B. I.

CLAUDE HALLAM had become one of the greatest professors at the Smithfield University.

MILTON MURPHY'S ambition was to be an undertaker and BERNARD WHEELER'S was to own a strawberry patch. They had compromised and were undertaking a strawberry patch.

DICK KERR, who was the president of General Motors, had hired DUANE BEAIRD and LARRY MANALO as chief mechanics for his new car which can be either driven or flown.

LEONARD FAIRBURN had become the first man to win the "Powder-Puff Derby".

It seemed as though Sophia Loren had just divorced her husband to marry her long admired JIM CLARK. Congratulations, Jim.

Dig this! JOHN MOWERY and NANCY PHILLIPS had eloped and gone on a honeymoon trip to Florida. They took "COOKIE" STRODE, who wanted to go to Florida and retire but didn't have any money.

PHIL SPRATT was the new owner of the former Day and Palin store.

ANN WALSH was the pilot of a trans-continental plane and JO ANN HENDEE was a stewardess on the same plane.

LOIS BAUGHMAN and BEVERLY HART had teamed up to run a unique shop. The name was "Make It Yourself."

PAULINE MARTINDALE and SANDRA JOHNS were both happily married and co-authors of a newspaper column, "Advice to the Lovelorn."

JOSEPHINE McCORMICK was a famous flag pole sitter. We still have to look up to her.

CARL WINDSOR and VICTOR GRAY were head coaches at Vassar. They had been quite successful and were enjoying their work.

JOAN CRAMBLET was owner of a chain of pop corn stands.

JUNE PAUL and VIRGINIA WILLIAMSON were famous for their vaudeville acts. June was a fire-eater and Virginia a weight-lifter.

CAROLE BAUGHMAN was a taxi cab driver in New York City. She certainly looked snappy in her uniform.

DORIS HENDERSON was the new owner of the Brooklyn Bridge.

After my little tour was over, I awoke to find that I was sitting in my living room. I hope you don't mind that I shared my little secret with you.

The Cardinals finished the season with a shining six won and one tied for the best record made by a Cuba football team. The blemish was a tie with a fine Havana ball club. The Cardinals won Olympic Conference co-championship, with a record of five wins and no losses.

The team had several standouts with Larry Beam and Carl Windsor in the line and John Mowery and Phil McLouth in the backfield. Several of the Cuba Players were named to various all-star teams. John Mowery was named to the first team Little-All State, All-Conference and All-County. Carl Windsor was given honorable mention on Little All-State and first team berth on All-Conference. Phil McLouth made honorable mention on Little All-State, first team All-Conference and second team All-County. Larry Beam received honorable mention on Little All-State, first team All-Conference and second team All-County. Bernard Wheeler was named to first team All-County and Ed. Churchill was named to the third team All-County. The Morelli defensive trophy was won by Larry Beam, who garnered sixty-nine tackles.

The Cardinals elected John Mowery and Larry McLouth co-captains.

The coaching reins were handled very capably by Coach Zaborac. He devised a tricky but powerful offense, which fit the team very well.

Congratulations to the coach and boys who made Cuba's most successful season!

Although the Junior Varsity did not show a winning record this season, several of the players showed the potential to fill the positions on the varsity to be vacated by the graduating seniors. With a little more experience, these boys will do well. The Cuba fans will see another winning team next year.

The "Fighting Cardinals" were moving along at a good clip until the team was broken up late in the season. In fact, they had a very respectable 12-4 record at one time.

Next year they should be a very successful team and everyone should be eager to see the results of a fighting and hustling ball club.

The Cardinals had a good season last year and won second place in the Olympic conference. They were victors in the first game of the district, but were eliminated in the second round by Lincoln, an excellent team.

The entire squad was made up of sophomores and juniors. A few of the positions were weakened because of the inexperience of the players, but with last year's experience they should be filled well for the 1958 season.

The 1957 track season of the Cardinals was a success. They finished fifth in the Olympic conference and third in the county meet.

The squad had an excellent sprinter in John Mowery, a good distance man in Milton Murphy and a coming high jumper in Phil Keefauver. The entire group will be back for the spring of 1958, with the exception of Harold Williamson who was a fine sprinter and a 440 runner.

A sharp whistle blew attention. All eyes turned to the west end of the football field to view the Cuba High School marching band. In maroon and white the band marched onto the field and struck up the spine-tingling "Star Spangled Banner." They also presented intricate halftime routines.

This year the pep band added zest to the pep meetings, while the concert band "backed" the team at the basketball games.

Under the capable direction of Mr. Herink a dance band was formed which was an asset to the school.

In the spring strains of "La Gazza Ladra" wafted their way through the halls, as the band prepared to attend the contests held by the Illinois High School Association.

The band certainly has a definite place in the student life at C. H. S.

ROW FOUR: Rose Mary Orwig, Carolyn Mason, Glenna Taylor, Beverly Cramblet, Karen Scalf, Zolene Clayberg, Gloreta Bevard, Merry Koelling.

F. H. A. are the initials used by the girls to refer to one of their favorite organizations --- the Future Homemakers of America, which was sponsored by Mrs. Quick.

The officers were Janet Watson, president; Virginia Williamson, vice-president; Sharon Baker, secretary; and Colleen Ogden, treasurer. Other officers were Janice Miller, Connie Stoneking, Sally Clark, Helen Wheeler, and Beverly Hart.

The F. H. A. sponsored a homecoming float, a skating party, a pep skit and a formal dance.

The girls enjoyed this club and attending the regular meetings, in which they learned many things that they will use throughout their lives.
